A Weekend in Paris Next Year

1

Welcome back to the third and final video in this 3 part series called "A Weekend in Paris". In this final video, I'll be telling you about the same weekend trip to Paris that will happen next year.

Remember that you should watch this video at least 10 times to really learn and understand the material. It's the best way to learn without question.

Okay, so let's get started with a "Weekend in Paris Next Year"

2

I know my family will love our trip to Paris next year. We will really enjoy going there once every year. Next year we will go on the Eurostar train from London to Disneyland Paris.

It will be an easy trip – no hassle with airports, planes, cars or ferries; just a single train journey which will last 2 hours.

It will be a special treat for our son, Joe. It will be his sixth birthday and he will be excited to go on all the rides.

I am sure the day in Disneyland will be a long one for the parents, but Joe will just love everything about it. He will enjoy all the rides and it will be difficult to tear him away to grab some lunch.

Joe will just adore all the life-size Disney characters. I will even take a photograph of him with Woody.... yes the very same Woody from Toy Story. He will so like that film!

I am sure Poppy and I will be so tired when we arrive at the hotel in the evening. After his exciting day, Joe will not take too long before he falls asleep. It will be a very tiring day for us all.

The next day, we will drive into Paris. It will be a beautiful city with many great sites to see like the Eiffel Tower, Arc de Triomphe, the River Seine, the Louvre museum and Notre Dame. I could go on and on.

I am sure I won't be able to remember how many of the sights we will get to see next year though. It will not be easy to entertain our 5 year old boy during our sight seeing tour of Paris.

We will start the journey very early and we will have breakfast – or as the French say – petit dejeuner – in one of those lovely cafés by the River Seine. I hope it will be a beautiful summer's day so we can sit outside watching the world go by.

In Paris, breakfast for me will mean croissants, pain du chocolate and coffee. These will be my favourites. Sitting outside a café by the River Seine on a summer's day will be simply wonderful.

7 _____

We won't be able to stay there all day though. Instead we will go for a walk and we will enjoy everything there is to see about Paris. Fortunately we will have our stroller with us.

This will be great for when Joe gets tired from walking... which will be after about 5 minutes. Without it, it will be either Poppy or me who has to carry him and that will make for a very difficult day!

We will see so many street artists in Paris, either sketching or painting the beautiful scenery and the architecture. We will stop and watch an expert at work drawing a beautiful summer's day by the River Seine.

There will be so many special things about Paris that both Poppy and I will really enjoy!
